

Americas Market Report — 2025

USA, Brazil, Canada, and Latin America · H2 2025 analysis

INTRODUCTION

The Americas region contributed $378,430 (57.3% of FY 2025 total revenue) to Northwind Traders across four sub-markets: USA, Brazil, Canada, and Other Latin America. The United States alone accounted for $245,220 (37.1% of global revenue) from 13 active accounts, making it Northwind Traders' single largest market worldwide.

UNITED STATES — PRIMARY GLOBAL MARKET

Metric	Value
FY 2025 revenue	$245,220
Active customers	13
Avg order value	$1,875
Largest account	Save-a-Lot Markets ($114,820 — 46.8% of US revenue)
Top category	Beverages (23% of US revenue)
YoY growth	+14% (est.)

The United States is Northwind Traders' largest single market, generating $245,220 in FY 2025 revenue from 13 accounts. Save-a-Lot Markets (Boise, Idaho) dominates the US portfolio at $114,820 (46.8% of US revenue), making it the company's largest global customer account. Rattlesnake Canyon Grocery (Albuquerque, New Mexico) and White Clover Markets (Seattle, Washington) are the second and third largest US accounts. Janet Leverling (Sales Representative) manages Save-a-Lot Markets; Nancy Davolio manages Rattlesnake Canyon Grocery.

US buyers show a preference for Beverages and Meat/Poultry categories. The US market average order value of $1,875 is 16% above the global company average of $1,619. The October 2025 Save-a-Lot Markets order of $17,250 — the largest single order in Northwind Traders' history — was fulfilled via Federal Shipping in a 5-pallet consolidated consignment.

BRAZIL — GROWING LATIN AMERICAN MARKET

Metric	Value
FY 2025 revenue	$66,790
Active customers	9
Avg order value	$1,126
Largest account	Hanari Carnes (Rio de Janeiro)
Top category	Confections (growing demand)

Metric	Value
YoY growth	+18% (est.)

Brazil is Northwind Traders' largest Latin American market, contributing $66,790 in FY 2025 revenue from 9 active accounts. Hanari Carnes (Rio de Janeiro) is the largest Brazilian account. Brazil showed the strongest growth trajectory in the Americas region at an estimated +18% YoY, driven by increasing Confections and Dairy demand. Note: the Q2 2025 Tokyo Traders delivery failure for Tofu product #14 generated a formal complaint from Hanari Carnes and a $320 order credit; the relationship has since been restored.

CANADA — STABLE ESTABLISHED MARKET

Metric	Value
FY 2025 revenue	$28,640 (est.)
Active customers	3
Largest account	Bottom-Dollar Marketplaces (Tsawwassen, BC)
Top categories	Condiments, Grains/Cereals
Key supplier	Forêts d'érables (Ste-Hyacinthe, QC)

Canada contributes $28,640 from three accounts, all long-standing Northwind Traders customers. Bottom-Dollar Marketplaces (Tsawwassen, British Columbia) is the largest Canadian account. Forêts d'érables (Ste-Hyacinthe, Quebec) — a Northwind Traders Condiments supplier — also maintains a retail buyer relationship. Canadian buyers predominantly purchase Condiments and Grains/Cereals product lines.

OTHER LATIN AMERICA — EMERGING MARKETS

Northwind Traders has five active accounts across Venezuela, Argentina, and Mexico, generating a combined $37,780 in FY 2025 revenue. LILA-Supermercado (Barquisimeto, Venezuela) is the largest account in this sub-segment. Centro comercial Moctezuma (Mexico City) placed no orders in FY 2025 and is classified as dormant; a reactivation outreach is planned for Q1 2026. The Latin American accounts are managed by Nancy Davolio and Laura Callahan.

Prepared by: Americas Sales Team · Northwind Traders · January 2026