QUARTER HIGHLIGHTS

Northwind Traders' Q4 2025 net revenue of $201,345 was the strongest quarter of fiscal year 2025. The Confections category surged 34% versus Q3 2025 ($31,480 in Q4 versus $23,490 in Q3), driven by seasonal gifting demand in November and December. Four of the ten largest orders by value in full-year 2025 were placed during Q4.

Record order (14 October 2025). Save-a-Lot Markets (Boise, Idaho, USA) placed the single largest order in Northwind Traders' history: $17,250 across 14 product lines, fulfilled by Federal Shipping in a consolidated 5-pallet consignment. The order was delivered on time with no damage claims.

New customer activation in Q4 2025. Three new accounts were onboarded: Vaffeljernet (Aarhus, Denmark), La corne d'abondance (Paris, France), and Die Wandernde Kuh (Stuttgart, Germany). Combined Q4 2025 revenue from these three accounts was $4,820.

EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE SPOTLIGHT — Q4 2025

Janet Leverling (Sales Representative at Northwind Traders, joined April 2020) closed Q4 2025 with 28 orders and $36,140 in attributed revenue — the highest individual Q4 result in company history. Leverling managed the Save-a-Lot Markets record order and reactivated Morgenstern Gesundkost (Munich, Germany) after an 18-month dormancy, generating $8,340 in H2 2025 revenue from that account.

Margaret Peacock (Sales Representative at Northwind Traders, joined May 2021) exceeded her H2 2025 target for the third consecutive half-year period, with particular strength in the German market. Peacock will assume lead relationship manager status for the QUICK-Stop (Cunewalde, Germany) account from January 2026.
